The Annual Car show drives into Glassboro on September 3, 2021. For the 16th year, car enthusiasts will gather in Glassboro, New Jersey at the Annual Glassboro Car Show & Food Truck Festival, the premier car show in South Jersey. The viewing area will be in Downtown Glassboro and the Town Square. An anticipated 5,000 attendees will have the opportunity to view over 350 vehicles while listening to live music, racing scale slot cars, listening to DJ Pepper Paul 92.1 and the South 47 Band, and enjoying the best food trucks and local cold craft beer.

The car show will be located in Downtown Glassboro and the Town Square, Glassboro, New Jersey. The show will be start at 5 pm. The show will end at 9 pm. This is a free family fun event and there is something for every gear head or casual admirer. On display will be restored vehicles representing all decades of automotive history as well as exotics, EV's, and motorcycles. Food vendors will be on site selling food and non-alcoholic beverages. Landmark Americana will host two Beer Gardens. There will be plenty of free parking at the event with signage and parking attendants to direct attendees. This is a rain or shine event.

“The Borough is proud to be such an integral part of South Jersey’s car culture and continuing to host this must-attend event.” said Councilman Andrew Halter. “The grand scale of our car show signifies the importance of showcasing automotive history in a family friendly atmosphere. We are excited to host this event and the sense of community that events like this bring to Downtown Glassboro”

Attendees will find an array of vintage domestics and imports and displays from car and motorcycle clubs. The entire length of Rowan Blvd and a major portion of Main Street will provide show-goers with a historical walk-through of automotive history, with a display of the finest classic and historic vehicles from all eras. The show's newest features are EV's, exotic cars, a giant slot car racing track, local celebrities cars, and designer wrapped vehicles to show the modern technological advances in the automotive industry. Major sponsors will have VIP welcome areas as well as giveaways such as Good Year Tires, AC Delco items, maintenance, parts, and much more.
